In the absence or disability of the Chair, the Vice Chair shall perform all the duties of the Chair and when so acting shall have all the powers of and be subject to all the restrictions upon the Chair. The Vice Chair shall have other powers and duties as prescribed by the Council Chair, by the Council or by the bylaws of the Council.

ARTICLE V – Committees

The Advisory Council shall have two standing committees; the Marketing Committee, and the Space Allocation Committee. The Council Chair may establish other committees as needed and appoint members to those committees.

Appointments to the standing committees shall be made by the Council Chair at the first meeting of the new academic year and shall serve until their replacements are appointed at the beginning of the next academic year.

• Facility Usage Committee

The Facility Usage Committee shall consist of a minimum of three members. The majority membership of the Facility Usage Committee shall be student members.

The Facility Usage Committee will investigate ways to enhance the services and programs available to students as primary users of the recreation facility. The Committee shall review the current use of the facilities and make recommendations to the Council for more efficient and effective use of the facility.

• Marketing Committee

The Marketing Committee shall consist of a minimum of three members. The majority membership of the Marketing Committee shall be student members.

The Marketing Committee will investigate ways to promote the services and programs available to students as primary users of the recreation facility. The Committee shall review the current marketing materials and plans to make recommendations to the Council.

ARTICLE VI – Rules of Procedure

• Quorum

Quorum for any Council meeting will be a majority of the membership. Of that number at least one half must be student representatives.

• Meetings

The Council shall meet twice during the Fall Semester and twice during the Spring Semester. Additional meetings may be held as needed and at the discretion of the Council. The Council may meet during the Summer Semester if urgent business must be conducted. Any changes approved by less than a full quorum during the summer must be approved by a full quorum during the academic year.

All meetings shall be open to the public. Unless announced otherwise, meetings will be held in Johnson Center.

• Minutes

A record of each meeting shall be kept and minutes recorded. Minutes shall be distributed in a timely manner to all council members.

The office of the Recreational Services Department will provide professional, clerical and technical support for the Council and serve as the permanent depository of Council records.

• Voting

All Council members with the exception of ex-officio member shall have the authority to vote on all matters before the Council.

Roberts’s Rules of Order, the most recent edition, shall be used in conducting meetings.

Actions or decisions by the Council shall be by a majority vote of the voting members present, with the exception of bylaw amendments.

• Amendments

Recommendations for changes in the bylaws must be presented and acted upon by the Council at a regularly scheduled meeting. A vote by the Council membership to amend the bylaws will be taken at the next regularly scheduled meeting.

Recommendations for changes to the bylaws may only be brought before the Council during the Spring or Fall Semesters.

Bylaws may only be amended by a two-thirds vote of the voting membership of the filled Council.

The Advisory Council shall present the new proposed amendments to the Director of the Recreational Services Department for approval and implementation.

- Conflict of Interest

Any member of the Council having private interest in matters before the Council shall disqualify himself or herself from discussion and voting on these matters.
