Santa Fe Artists Market
February 7, 2016

I am delighted that you have chosen to go on this adventure, which is a first for the Getaway Adventure program! The Santa Fe Railyard is the most eclectic exciting world-class contemporary art experience and is also the location for the Artists Market! All the galleries are housed in spacious warehouse style buildings and within walking distance of each other. This will definitely be something new and exciting to experience on a weekend. Enjoy the diversity Santa Fe has to offer!

I recommend the following:

• Good walking shoes
• Warm jacket
• Warm layers (coat you can move in) *just in case the weather turns
• water
• Hat/sunglasses/gloves
• Day pack or bag to carry items
• snacks
• camera

There are eating establishments in the Railyard area as well as the downtown locations.
We will meet on the south side of Johnson Fields on Redondo in front of the big pine trees at 9:00a.m. On the weekends you can park in the A lots without ticketing. Our estimated return time to Albuquerque will be by 4:30p.m. I look forward to seeing all of you on Sunday, February 7. If you have any questions feel free to call at 277-0178 or email me at lmont@unm.edu or your guide Marty Martinez at martyr@unm.edu

Sincerely,

Laura Montoya
